With their latest attempt to repair the dimensional portal resulting in catastrophic failure, Krang and Hob decide the best way to achieve their ends—freeing both Shredder and the Pantheon—is to steal the portable dimensional window from the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles! But the Turtles' lair is both hidden and well defended, two things that will keep our villainous crew from acquiring the portal in a quick and easy fashion. There's only one solution: Hire another ninja to steal the device for them! Shredder has kept tabs on a formidable ninja who the Turtles have trusted in the past—but can the bad guys talk her into joining their cause? (That's rhetorical. If they didn't convince her to help, we wouldn't have a story!) Join us for the return of Lotus Blossom as the Saturday Morning Adventures continue!

Acclaimed animation and comic book writer Tim Sheridan joins the crew of the U.S.S. Cerritos for their next adventure!

There's nothing quite like a mother-daughter relationship. There's also nothing quite like finding out your monolith of a captain used to be a carefree ensign who accidentally vanished her whole crew in an experiment gone wrong. Lucky for Beckett Mariner, she gets to soak up both experiences all on the same day as her mother, Captain Freeman, regales her with a throwback tale of how she was "just like you when she was young," and "mistakes help us grow, blah, blah." Meanwhile, all Mariner wants to know is how could Freeman let Pulaski get away with hair like that?

"Brings the promise of continuing laugh-out-loud adventures for the crew of the U.S.S. Cerritos."

From the team who brought you the Ringo- and Eisner-nominated Shaxs' Best Day comes a rip-roaring ride full of clever ship hijinks, nonstop badassery, and bombastic punches...because at the end of the day, let's face it. It's not Shaxs' worst day. It's fascism's.

Shaxs had his best day, but now that the universe has been rewritten by the mad android Lore, he's about to have his worst. Starfleet has been distorted into a machinery of oppression antithetical to everything it once stood for, and Shaxs has been made into the one thing he despises most in the universe: a fascist.

Now free of Lore's hold over his mind, it's up to Shaxs to revert everyone in Starfleet back to their old selves and save the cosmos.

Political corruption ensues as Sela and her father, General Revo, leverage the imprisoned Defiant crewmates to kidnap the Romulan praetor and chairman of Tal Shiar Intelligence to advance their sinister plot to take over Romulus...

This leaves Worf, B'Elanna, and Ro with two crewmates down, and a planet on the brink of Romulan invasion. Despite how hopeful the planet's meager farming population is, what are three failed Starfleet officers and lowly resistance fighters to a heavily armed and technologically advanced Romulan strike team?

Pride Month is upon us once again! As monsters gear up to skelebrate their LGBTQIA+ fiends, I have some defrightfully adorable pieces of gossip about two of Monster High's favorite couples...

First, we all know and love the fiercest and most fashionable ghoulfriends: Clawdeen Wolf and Toralei Stripe, A.K.A. Toradeen. But how did they go from hisses to kisses? It's simple math, really. Clawculus + a common enemy + forced proximity = the perfect love story. Nothing screams romance quite like math camp.

Then, Spelldon Cauldronello and Kieran Valentine are fearfully couple goals. But my Criers tell me that dating as an emotional vampire can make things a bit awkward. Valentine's powers are totally out of control, and he worries he might have accidentally hypnotized Spelldon to fall in love with him. That's the only logical explanation for why he feels all warm and fuzzy inside...right?

Whoa, dude! I'm not stealin' anything. I'm from the human world. I just portalled here by accident.
I don't even know where I am. Look at my legs. I'm human!
Legs, huh?
Ok, your story appears to check out.
But then...who's been stealing our tricklings?
Beats me, man.
You better come with me, and we'll get to the bottom of this.

Open your eyes.
Where...where are we?
Your new home.

Woh, of course not. But I do think a little butt-kicking is in order. Whaddya think?
Deal.
Alright. Then let's not waste any more time.
For my second wish, I wish for us all to travel to wherever Avery's pal Gimlet is being held.
